NOTES

- 1. The above election expenses incurred by the political party during the annual period (outside the campaign period) are subject to spending limits prescribed by sections 41.1 and 41.2 of the EFCDA (see below for details).
2. This schedule is an official component of the Political Party Annual Financial Statement. All attestations as to the accuracy of the Political Party Annual Financial Statement apply equally to this attachment.

EFCDA PART 5.1 MAXIMUM EXPENSE LIMITS (EXCERPT)

Election expenses

41.1(1) In this Part, "election expense", subject to this Part, means any expense incurred, or non-monetary contribution received,

(a) by a registered party, registered constituency association or registered candidate, to the extent that the real property, goods or services that the expense was incurred for, or that were received as a non-monetary contribution, are used to directly promote or oppose a registered party, its leader or a candidate during an election period;

(b) by a nomination contestant, to the extent that the real property, goods or services that the expense was incurred for, or that were received as a non-monetary contribution, are used to directly promote or oppose a nomination contestant during a nomination contest.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the use of goods in a 2nd or subsequent election is a non-monetary contribution.

(3) An election expense referred to in subsection (1) includes an expense incurred for, or a non-monetary contribution in relation to,

(a) the production of advertising or promotional material,

(b) the distribution, broadcast or publication of advertising or promotional material in any media or by any other means during the election period, including by the use of a capital asset,

(c) the payment of remuneration and expenses to or on behalf of a person for the person's services as a chief financial officer or in any other capacity,

(d) securing a meeting space, or

(e) the conduct of election surveys or other surveys or research during an election period.

(4) In this section, "expense incurred" means an expense that is incurred, whether it is paid or unpaid.

Election expense limits — registered parties

41.2(1) No registered party and no chief financial officer of a registered party shall incur election expenses in respect of a general election that exceed in the aggregate $2 000 000 as adjusted under section 41.5.

(2) No registered party and no chief financial officer of a registered party shall incur election expenses in respect of a by-election for an electoral division that exceed in the aggregate $23 000 as adjusted in accordance with section 41.5.

(3) The following expenses are not election expenses for the purposes of subsections (1) and (2):

(a) audit and professional fees necessary for compliance with this Act by the registered party;

(b) expenses incurred to hold a conference or convention of a registered party;

(c) expenses incurred by a registered party to operate a permanent office, including the salaries and wages paid to permanent staff members working in the office during the election period;

(d) reasonable incidental expenses incurred by or on behalf of volunteers.

EFCDA PART 5.1 MAXIMUM EXPENSE LIMITS (EXCERPT)

Election expenses

41.1(1) In this Part, "election expense", subject to this Part, means any expense incurred, or non-monetary contribution received,

(a) by a registered party, registered constituency association or registered candidate, to the extent that the real property, goods or services that the expense was incurred for, or that were received as a non-monetary contribution, are used to directly promote or oppose a registered party, its leader or a candidate during an election period;

(b) by a nomination contestant, to the extent that the real property, goods or services that the expense was incurred for, or that were received as a non-monetary contribution, are used to directly promote or oppose a nomination contestant during a nomination contest.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the use of goods in a 2nd or subsequent election is a non-monetary contribution.

(3) An election expense referred to in subsection (1) includes an expense incurred for, or a non-monetary contribution in relation to,

(a) the production of advertising or promotional material,

(b) the distribution, broadcast or publication of advertising or promotional material in any media or by any other means during the election period, including by the use of a capital asset,

(c) the payment of remuneration and expenses to or on behalf of a person for the person's services as a chief financial officer or in any other capacity,

(d) securing a meeting space, or

(e) the conduct of election surveys or other surveys or research during an election period.

(4) In this section, "expense incurred" means an expense that is incurred, whether it is paid or unpaid.

Election expense limits — registered candidates

41.3(1) No registered candidate and no chief financial officer of a registered candidate shall incur election expenses in respect of an election in an electoral division that exceed in the aggregate $50 000 as adjusted in accordance with section 41.5.

(2) The following expenses are not election expenses for the purposes of subsections (1):

(a) a registered candidate's travel expenses reasonably related to the election, including meals and accommodation;

(b) a registered candidate's child care expenses;

(c) expenses relating to the provision of care for a person with a physical or mental incapacity for whom the registered candidate normally provides such care;

(d) in the case of a registered candidate who has a disability, additional expenses that are related to the disability;

(e) audited and professional fees necessary for compliance with this Act by the registered candidate;

(f) reasonable incidental expenses incurred by or on behalf of volunteers.
