ELECTORAL DIVISION RESULTS

For each electoral division, maps and poll-by-poll results are provided.

Maps

The maps shown are those described by the Electoral Divisions Act. For each electoral division a map showing the boundaries of the electoral division is provided, as well as the boundaries of each polling subdivision. The polling subdivision numbers refer to geographical areas identified on each of the maps and relate to the poll numbers in the electoral division results tables. Overview maps of the province, Edmonton and Calgary are provided as a pull-out at the back of the report to show the comparative location of each electoral division in the province. Maps are available in electronic format at www.elections.ab.ca.

Poll-by-Poll Results

The electoral division poll-by-poll results include the vote counts as reported in the Statements of Official Results completed by returning officers in the 87 electoral divisions across the province, as well as updated figures for “names on list” and “voter turnout” based on the January 2020 post-polling day list of electors. Each table includes the following elements:

- POLL NUMBER / NAME: The poll number can be utilized in comparison to the provided maps to determine which geographical area is represented by the results. In some instances, more than one poll number is included on a single line, as that poll was combined with another for the purposes of voting on Election Day. Following the geographical poll numbers, results are provided for Special Ballot, mobile polls, advance polls and special mobile polls (SMP). All electoral divisions (EDs) will also display results for poll 998 (advance out of ED) and poll 999 (SMP out of ED). These two polls are the results from the vote anywhere ballots that were cast during the advance polls and counted centrally at Elections Alberta.
- NAMES ON LIST: This number is provided for each geographical poll number and reflects the number of electors on the post-polling day list of electors as of January 2020. This number includes all new registrations completed at the polls and reflects updates to the Register of Electors completed to move, add and delete elector records.

- CANDIDATE NAMES AND PARTY AFFILIATION: Candidates, and their political party affiliations, if any, are then listed in alphabetical order, as they were presented on the electoral division ballot.
- VALID BALLOTS (VALID): Valid ballots are those that are clearly marked for one candidate and counted in accordance with section 111 of the Election Act.
- SPOILED BALLOTS (S): A spoiled ballot is one that was marked incorrectly by an elector and returned to the deputy returning officer for replacement. The elector then votes using the replacement ballot from the deputy returning officer. A spoiled ballot is not placed in the ballot box for counting, but is instead placed in a separate envelope labelled “spoiled ballots”.
- DECLINED BALLOTS (D): A declined ballot is one that was returned to the deputy returning officer by an elector, who chose not to vote for any candidate listed on the ballot; and, who stated the same to the deputy returning officer. Declined ballots are not placed in the ballot box for counting, but are instead placed in a separate envelope labelled “declined ballots”.
- REJECTED BALLOTS (R): Rejected ballots are ballots placed in the ballot box for counting, but are not counted because the elector’s intent was unclear, because no candidates or more than one candidate was selected, or because readily identifying marks were added. A rejected ballot is placed in a separate envelope labelled “rejected ballots”.
- VOTER TURNOUT (%): Voter turnout percentages are provided for each polling subdivision based on the updated “names on list” number and the total ballots cast at Election Day polling stations. The poll-by-poll voter turnout percentage does not include the ballots issued by electors in those polling subdivisions at Special Ballot, mobile, advance or special mobile polls. The percentage provided in the totals at the end of each summary table provides a voter turnout at the electoral division level that includes all ballots cast at all polls. This includes the valid, declined, and rejected ballots.

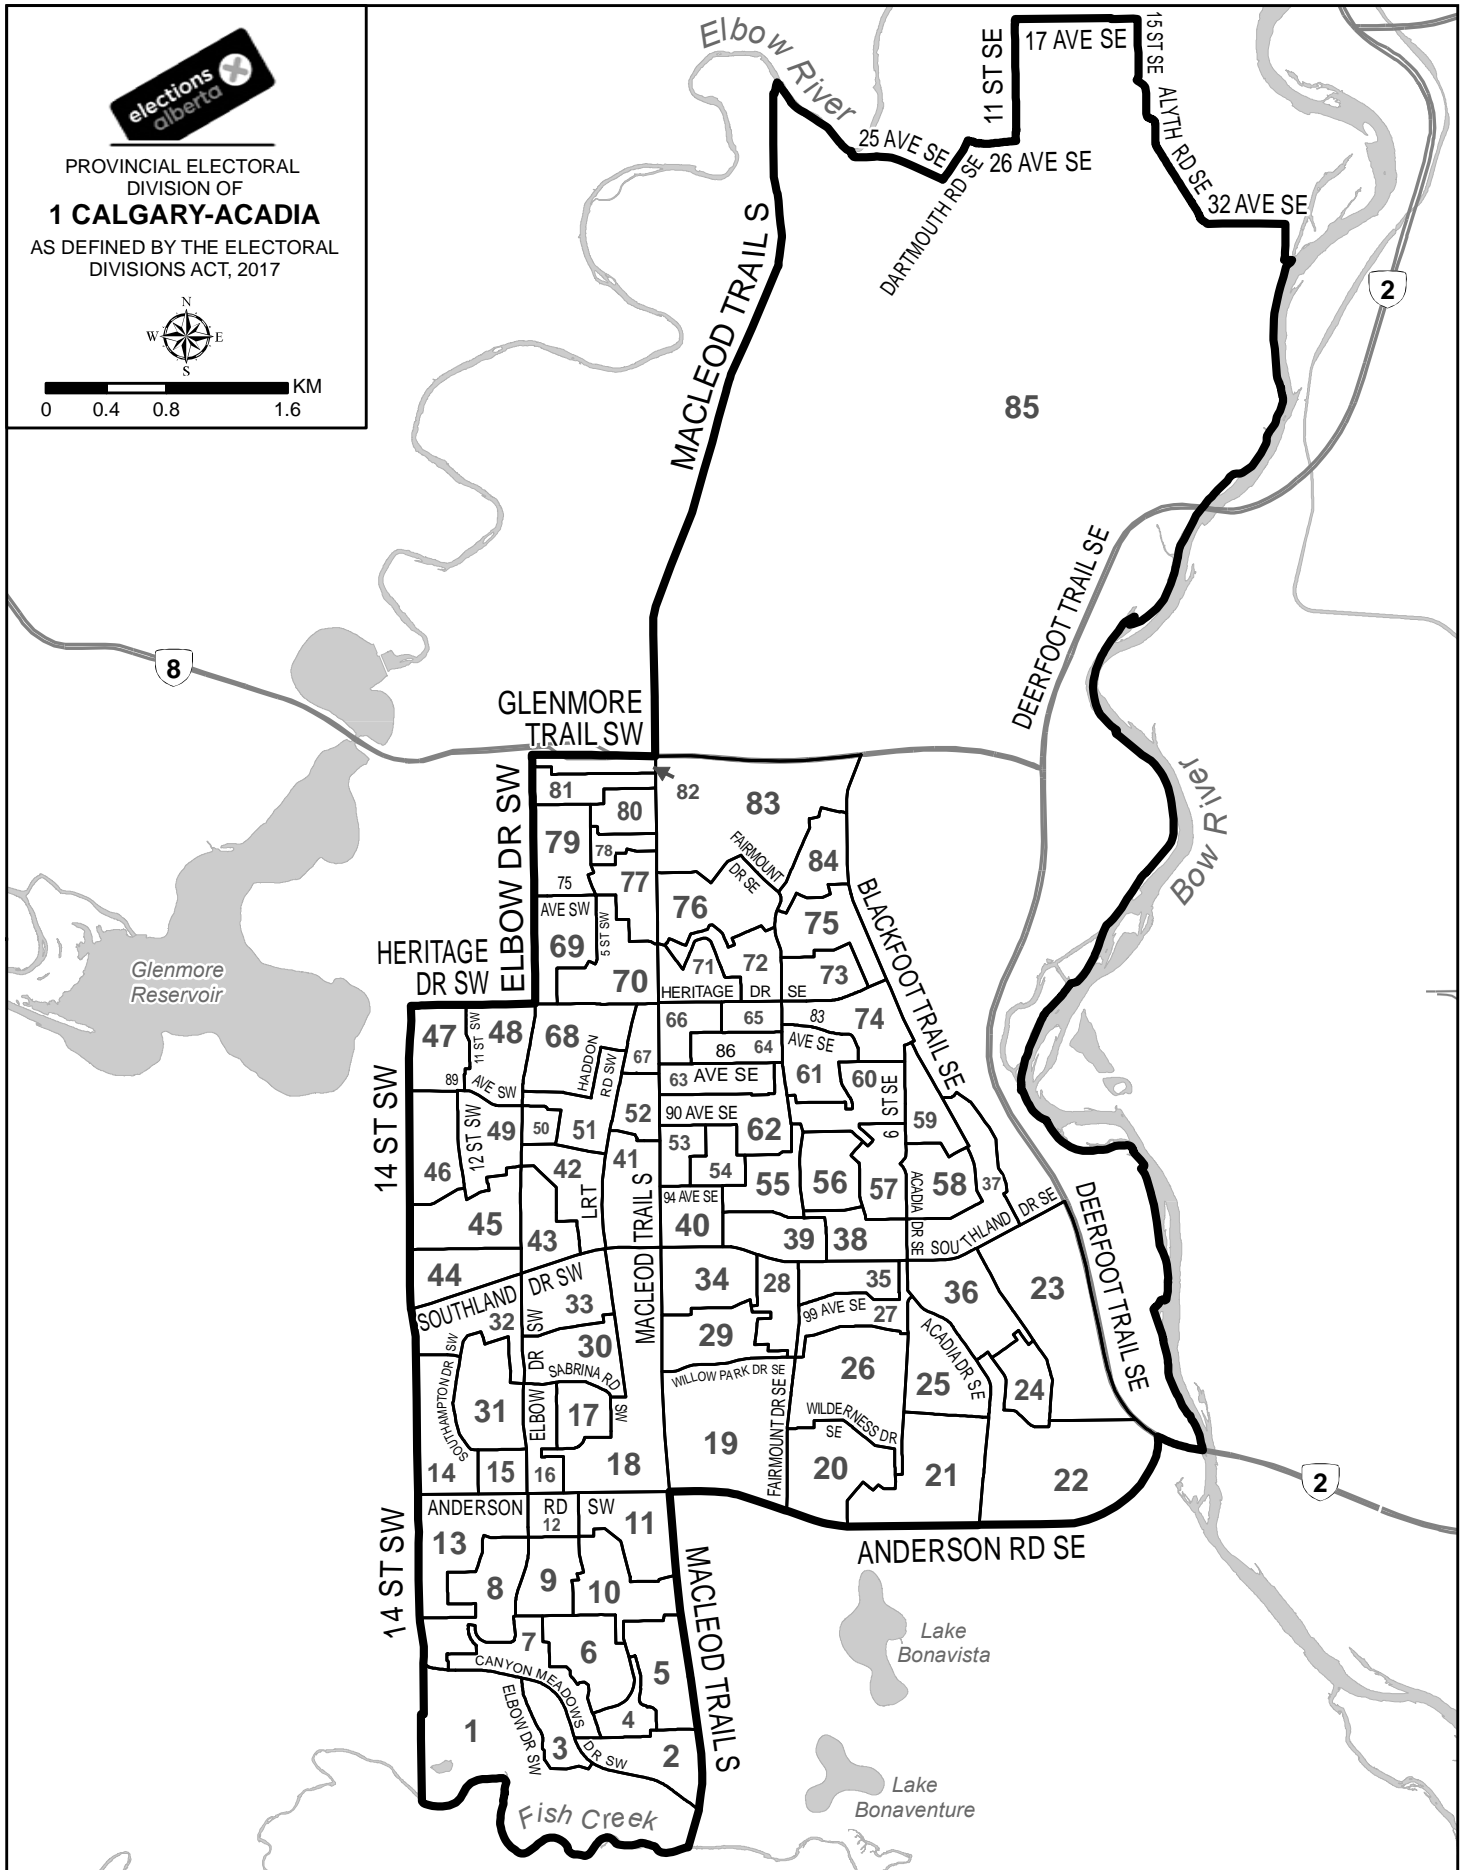

Electoral division and provincial results are available in electronic format at www.elections.ab.ca.
